The ILCF Music Club, is a place where our students can learn French songs, sing, or play an instrument (every level is welcome).

The Music Club meets on Fridays during the semester sessions, from 1:15pm to 2:00pm.

Ciné-Club

The Cinema club was created, as an initiative of our professors. The ILCF Cinema Club, helps our international students, to discover French films throughout the semester. Each featured film, is presented by our professors, and followed by a discussion with the students. An event not to be missed! Fun screenings not to be missed !

Café-Philo

The "Café-Philo" activity offers to students the chance to discuss and debate around philosophical or social questions. Led by a teacher, it is the ideal opportunity to practice french speaking and free thinking. Work, politics, human relations and many other subjects are discussed there.

Rencontres Conversations Amicales

With Parisian moderators, the RCALF (Rencontres - Conversations Amicales en Langue Française) take place in a relaxed setting and several times a week from 11 a. m. to 4 p.m. (one-hour sessions).
