

Culture and Civilization

Introduction

Learning French also entails exploring all aspects of French culture. That is why we offer each semester over 30 courses covering French culture and civilization.

Objectives

Focusing on a diversity of themes, these courses allow students to study specific lexical fields, while also acquiring the keys to comprehending various aspects of French culture :

- The key periods of French history,
 - France's great authors
 - Paris, past and present
 - French culture and cuisine
 - Fashion and cinema
 - Art history
 - History of the French press and media
- etc.

Specificities

The courses also offer the opportunity to participate in off-site activities to complement and enrich the course content: museum visits, neighbourhood tours, exhibitions, films, etc.

Admission

Application

Conditions of applications

- Must be 18 years or older,
- Must have a secondary school (high school) diploma,
- Must take the placement test at ILCF.

Program

Two course semesters :

Internship(s)

Yes, Optionnal

- Autumn semester, from September to January
- Spring semester, from February to June

The courses are divided into 3-hour modules.

These modules allow students to learn the French language while also exploring French culture and civilization.