

Semester courses

Introduction

Semester courses are the perfect option to improve one's oral and written French, benefitting from total immersion while discovering different aspects of French culture.

Learning a foreign language strongly testifies to an openness to others, a global curiosity.
We strongly believe that multilingualism encourages the growth of both individuals and societies.

To accompany you during this essential stage of your academic and professional career, ILCF offers courses of 3 to 21 hours per week, over a period of 14 weeks.

Objectives

- Learn French in total immersion,
- Refresh or perfect one's French,
- Strengthen the learner's self-confidence in learning and perfecting his/her French, thanks notably to pronunciation and phonetics sessions.

Specificities

ILCF offers diverse modes and methods of learning, well suited to your particular goals.

Admission

Internship(s)

Yes, Optionnal

Rhythm

- Part time

Application

Conditions of applications

- Must be 18 years or older,
- Must have a secondary school (high school) diploma,
- Must take the placement exam at ILCF.

Program

Semester sessions

Semester sessions allow you to choose those courses best suited to your particular project.

Two course semesters :

- Autumn semester, from September to January
- Spring semester, from February to June.

Our everyday French classes allow you to practice all four essential linguistic competences, at each level (A1 to C1) of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFRL) :

- oral comprehension ;
- written comprehension ;
- oral production ;
- written production.