3 good reasons to choose ILCF

Frederic ALBERT

Our courses offer the opportunity to participate in off-site activities around Paris, supervised by our instructors and complementing the particular content of each course: museum visits, exhibitions, etc.
At ILCF, beginning learners benefit from a minimum of 12 hours of weekly instruction.
Our training courses are accessible as further education (vocational training), as well as to job-seekers registered with Pôle Emploi.

Free of charge

tutoring
ciné-club
café-philo
conversation workshops : every day French language conversation workshops are organized on campus by volunteers with small groups of no more than five students, and once a month these volunters organize in the afternoon a cultural visit in Paris, to museums, historical monuments, places of interest…

ILCF has developed unique teaching methodologies, learning rhythms, progressions and activities best suited to helping students attain their targeted level of French, according to the 6 competence levels of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFRL).
