

Sales Conditions

Registering for one of the sessions proposed by ILCF is a commitment and implies the acceptance of the present Sales Conditions.

1. ELIGIBILITY

To join ILCF, the student must:

- be over 16 years of age;
- have completed a high-school diploma or equivalent in the country of origin;
- have upon arrival a valid residency card or a valid visa if he is a Non-European Union (EU) member and if he registers for a session of more than three months;
- take a placement test if it is the first registration.

2. REGISTRATION RULES

Registrations and payments can be done:

- online on the website www.icp.fr/ilcf
- by post: ILCF – Institut Catholique de Paris, 21 rue d'Assas - 75270 Paris Cedex 06 - France
- by e-mail: ilcf@icp.fr
- on-site: ILCF – Institut Catholique de Paris, 74 rue de Vaugirard - 75006 Paris

Classes are open on the condition there is a sufficient number of students registered. The replacement of a course by another course will be done as best as possible.

ILCF can refuse the new registration of a student already enrolled at the Catholic University of Paris, if he hasn't completed the initial payment of the tuition fees.

3. FINANCIAL CONDITIONS

- Attending an ILCF courses involves the payment of the following fees: annual registration fees, tuition fees and optional library services fees.
- For short sessions, evening classes, Saturday classes and courses taught in English, the full payment is compulsory at the time of preregistration.
- For semester sessions, a down payment of 400 € per session is possible at the time of preregistration, if the student chooses 9 hours per week or more. The balance is due on the day of registration to the course(s).
- Books and exercise books are not included in the tuition or registration fees.
- Bank fees must be paid by the student.

4. COOLING OFF PERIOD FOR ANY ONLINE PURCHASE

The student has the right to cancel his registration within 14-days from the date of acceptance of the Sales Conditions of registration, without having to provide any reason. If the 14-day cooling off period ends on a Saturday, Sunday, on a bank holiday or a nonworking day, the term may be extended to the next working day. Any student, who wants to exercise his right to a cancellation, must notify, within the legal period indicated above, in writing and by e-mail at ilcf@icp.fr or postal mail, to the following address: ILCF - Catholic University of Paris, 21 rue d'Assas - 75270 Paris cedex 06 – France.

5. CANCELLATION POLICY AND REFUND

- Registration fees and optional library service fees are not refundable.
- Bank fees will be deducted from the refund.
- The amounts collected on behalf of a student's account cannot be transferred to on another student's account.
- In case of refund of tuition fees, the student card and the school certificate must be sent back to ILCF, prior to any refund.

Visa refusal

Tuition fees will be entirely refunded upon submission of the visa refusal notification from the Embassy or the Consulate. This notification must be received before the 1st day of courses.

No refund will be issued from the 1st day of courses.

ILCF cannot be held responsible for any difficulties in obtaining a visa or a residency card.

Severe illness

Tuition fees will be entirely refunded upon submission of a medical certificate for a severe illness. This certificate must be submitted before the 1st day of courses.

From the 1st day of the session, the refund will be calculated on a pro-rated basis.

Cancellation for other motives

If the written request for cancellation is received at ILCF (the date of the e-mail or postal mail is taken into account):

- a. Over 30 days before the beginning of the session, tuition fees will be entirely refunded;
- b. between 30 days and the day before the beginning of the session, ILCF will keep a 400 € penalty;
- c. from the 1st day of the session, no refund will be possible; the number of hours chosen cannot be reduced;
- d. students registered through agents will have to send their request to the agent; ILCF will handle these requests only with the agent.

Late arrivals, early departures, changes of programs

- For students arriving after the 1st day of the session, ILCF can't guarantee a place in a course even if the full payment has been made.
- If certain courses are full, ILCF will propose a registration for an equivalent course or for the next session. ILCF cannot be held responsible for this situation.
- No change of course rhythm or schedule can be accepted once the courses have started.
- No reduction, nor refund, nor postponement can be requested for legal French or foreign holidays, bank holidays, late arrivals or early departures.

Health crisis

- In the event of a health crisis, the ILCF is organized to allow the courses on campus in compliance with the strict social distancing and hygiene requirements imposed by the French government to all universities. These will be adapted as government directives are updated which may require switching face-to-face courses to online courses. In this case, no refund will be granted.

6. CHANGES OF PROGRAM, MODIFICATIONS

The Catholic University of Paris has the right to:

- cancel a program or a course if the minimum number of students is not reached; if ILCF cannot propose an equivalent course, tuition fees will be entirely refunded;
- modify the courses schedule and the course calendar;
- replace teachers originally scheduled.

7. INSURANCE

Health insurance

- Non-European Economic Area (EEA) students, aged 18 to 28 years old and registered for more than three months at ILCF (semester sessions), must join the French Social Security by registering on the dedicated website etudiant-etranger.ameli.fr to be covered during the academic year, from September 1st till August 31st.
- Students belonging to the European Economic Area, aged 18 to 28 years old and registered for more than three months at ILCF, must provide a European Health Insurance Card (CEAM) - issued by the social protection organization of their country of origin - in order to be exempted from the registration to the Social Security - French national health insurance.
- Students working as an «au pair» with a long term contract (at least one year) are exempted from this registration. ILCF requires a copy of the contract.
- For all other cases, a private health insurance is compulsory and from the responsibility of the student.

Other insurances

A personal liability insurance is compulsory and must be paid by the student.

8. EXCLUSION

In case of misbehaviour of a student, as outlined in the internal regulations of the Institute, ILCF has the right to expel the offending student, without any refund.

The ILCF internal regulations are available at the entrance desk or can be sent on request.

9. LITIGATION

In the event of a dispute, only French laws will be applicable. The parties will attempt to reach an amicable agreement.

In case of disagreement, the Paris court shall have jurisdiction to resolve any dispute between the parties.

In the event of differences between the French and English versions of the Sales Conditions, the French version has legal validity.
